TEC, ICAR-IVRI, Pune organised Training Workshop on ‘Effective Presentation Skills’ from 14th to 16th December 2021

“Presentation skills are crucial for professionals to attain success” stressed Dr Hema Tripathi, National Coordinator (M&E and ESS) & IG of National Agricultural Higher Education Project, New Delhi, while addressing the valedictory session of three-day long training workshop on 16th December 2021. Dr Hema Tripathi highlighted the importance of various dimensions of communication while delivering her speech. She was very happy to hear the feedbacks from trainees on the successful organization of training workshop and admired efforts of TEC Pune for organizing soft skill training workshop for empowering young researchers to commemorate Aaadi ka Amrut Mahotsav.

Earlier on 14th of December 2021, the training workshop on ‘Effective Presentation Skills’ was inaugurated by Dr Kiran Bhilegaonkar, Station-in-Charge, TEC IVRI Pune. Dr Bhilegaonkar briefly highlighted the salient activities of Pune Centre and explained the need of training workshops on soft skills. It was a paid soft skill training workshop wherein 34 participants participated via online mode. Trainees consisted of Bachelor students, Master students, Doctoral students, Assistant Professors and Associate Professors from different disciplines who hailed from 16 states of India.

The training workshop was planned by Dr Amol Bhalerao (Course Coordinator) and Dr Sangharatna Bahire (Course Co-coordinator) considering the career needs of young generation of researchers in agricultural sector. Dr Bhalerao acted as resource person to conduct all eight sessions of the training workshop. The topics such as Planning a presentation, Content and Design, Breathing and body language, The art of introducing yourself, Delivering a presentation, Strategies to captivate audience, Tips for delivering thesis seminar / conference presentations, Management of stage fear and Dealing with the questions from audience etc. were covered to orient young researchers for mastering their presentation skills.
For the inaugural as well as valedictory session Dr. Sangharatna Bahire proposed vote of thanks to the guests and trainees. Dr SK Das and Dr HP Aithal, Principal Scientists were also present during the sessions of workshop.