Office-Order

In reference to the circular of even number dated 18, November 2019 vide which the process of forwarding of applications for outside employment was withheld due to the acute shortage of staff, the competent authority has reviewed the matter and agreed upon to forward the applications for outside employment in respect of administrative staff except Class-I officers.

However, the restriction of forwarding of application of technical staff will remain same, as the directions in this regard were issued by the council.
