Background

Section Officers, AAOs, AFAOs and Assistants of ICAR Institutes with minimum 5 years' experience play a very important role in the overall administrative function of the institute. The Officers in the administrative and finance need to be oriented to take up new challenges and assignments in the present era. In the recent past there have been changes and amendments in the rules and government policies with reference to establishment rules, GFR etc. This programme would therefore provide an opportunity for AAOs, AFAOs and Assistants in the institute to interact with each other and to have knowledge and exposure to the latest rule position/ICAR guidelines.

Objectives

To provide an opportunity for middle level officers of combined cadre of ICAR for mutual interaction and knowledge sharing among them.

To sharpen the administrative and financial skills to discharge their day to day responsibilities more effectively and efficiently.

Programme Contents

Establishment Rules, Pension and other Retirement Benefits, Pax Fixation, Reservation in Services for SC/ST/OBC, Ethics and Values in Public Governance, E-Procurement/Purchase Management in Government, E-office, Good Governance and sustainability through HR Practices, Leadership and Performance Management, Communication skills for Manager, Technical Service Rules
