

TEC, ICAR-IVRI Pune organised a workshop on “How to Formulate Project Proposals and Write Research Papers?” at KNP College of Veterinary Sciences, Shirwal, Satara (MH) on 8th August 2017

Training and Education Centre, ICAR-IVRI, Pune organized a one-day workshop on “How to Formulate Project Proposals and Write Research Papers?” for the faculty and PG students of KNP College of Veterinary Sciences, Shirwal, Satara (MH) on 8th August 2017. About 60 faculty members and students attended the workshop. Dr KN Bhilegaonkar presented on ‘Formulation of Winning Project Proposals’ and Dr HP Aithal presented a lecture on ‘How to Write Research Papers?’. There was overwhelming response from the participants. Dr AS Ranade, Associate Dean, KNP College of Veterinary Sciences, in his concluding remarks stated that the faculty and students are immensely benefited from the lectures and urged the College faculty to prepare quality research proposals and papers by taking guidance from the scientists of IVRI Centre, Pune. He thanked IVRI for organizing the workshop on an important topic for the benefit of faculty and students of the College.

Dr AS Ranade welcomes the Guests

Dr KN Bhilegaonkar addressing the gathering

Dr HP Aithal delivering lecture

The participants-faculty and students of the College