

Educational Exposure Visit of Students of Maurya School, Gurugram to ICAR-IVRI Mukteswar Campus on 30-05-2023

One hundred three students of Maurya School, Gurugram, Haryana to ICAR-IVRI Mukteswar Campus on 30-05-2023 visited ICAR-IVRI Mukteswar Campus on an educational tour accompanied by their teachers. The students were apprised of the history, achievements, library, laboratories, current research works and the global significance of the campus. Further, the students were educated about the significance of ICAR-IVRI Mukteswar's research on animal diseases and production. Dr. Ashok Kumar Mohanty (Joint Director, IVRI Mukteswar Campus) addressed the students regarding the historical significance and immense contribution of the campus to the world of veterinary research and development. Dr. Amir Kumar Samal (Scientists) coordinated the exposure visit.

Figure-1: Dr. Ashok Kumar Mohanty (Joint Director, IVRI Mukteswar Campus) addressing the students regarding the historical significance and immense contribution of the campus

Figure-2: Students with the Joint Director