

National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of ICAR-Indian Veterinary Research Institute inaugurated a Seven-Day Special NSS Camp

On 7 March 2026, the National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of ICAR-Indian Veterinary Research Institute inaugurated a Seven-Day Special NSS Camp in Hamirpur Village, Bareilly district, Uttar Pradesh in the presence of respected village representatives and local citizens. The camp is being organized under the guidance of Dr. Mukesh Kumar, Scientist, Biochemistry Division, who is serving as the Program Officer.

During the inaugural program, several esteemed members of the village community were present, including Shri Rajveer Singh, Shri Harish, Shri Jaysingh, Shri Sompal, and Shrimati Savitri, along with other honorable villagers. Shri Rajveer Singh addressed the NSS volunteers and encouraged them to actively engage with villagers, particularly in creating awareness about animal husbandry practices and disease prevention during the camp.

As part of the program, students from B.V.Sc. & A.H. (2nd and 3rd year) and B.Tech Biotechnology (2nd year) are conducting village surveys on various important aspects including women empowerment, child welfare, education, health and hygiene, tobacco consumption and its harmful effects, animal husbandry practices, and awareness of government welfare schemes. The data collected during these surveys will be used by the students over the next six days to design and implement targeted awareness and outreach activities for the local community.

The organizers sincerely express their heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Raghavendra Bhatta, Director, ICAR-Indian Veterinary Research Institute, Dr. S. K. Mendiratta, Joint Director (Academics), Dr. S. K. Saha, Student Welfare Officer, Dr. R. S. Suman (PS), Veer Singh from the Division of Extension Education, and Omprakash for their constant guidance and support. The organizers also extend their sincere thanks to the respected village representatives and all the villagers for their valuable cooperation in successfully initiating the NSS camp.”

